

2019 Canadian Wild Horse Race Association

Rules and Regulations

Index:

- GR. General Rules
- A. Animal Safety and Wellness
- B. Equipment
- C. Membership
- D. CWHRA Sanctioning Rules
- E. Entries
- F. Payouts
- G. Standings and Points
- H. Awards and Eligibility
- I. Turnouts, Releases, and Substitutions
- J. Grievances, Appeals and Blacklist
- K. Release Clause
- L. Logo and Copyright
- M. Board of Directors

Objectives of the CWHRA

The objectives of the Canadian Wild Horse Race Association (CWHRA) are to:

- maintain and assist in the betterment of Wild Horse racing as a sport,
- promote and encourage junior and amateur Wild Horse Racers and Mutton Busting participation,
- provide for the recreation of the members and to promote and afford opportunity for friendly and social activities,
- encourage and promote amateur sports and exercises
- generally encourage, foster and develop among its members recognition of the importance of agriculture and heritage in the rural community.

GR. General Rules

GR1 Contestants must sign a CWHRA waiver to compete in a CWHRA sanctioned event

GR2 All Contestants must have a current membership in good standing to compete in a CWHRA event for points to count.

GR3 Entry fees must be paid prior to competing in any CWHRA event.

GR4 A maximum of three (3) team members per horse is allowed.

GR5 Each team must supply a shank rope, halter, and saddle as per rules B1-B5.

GR6 If any team's horse should become free from their chute due to opening their gate prior to the start signal, they will be disqualified.

GR7 Entire horse must cross finish line within the time limit to count as a finish. The finish line is at the centre of a barrel placed 20 feet or 7 paces from the fence (prior to the race) and may be crossed in either direction.

GR8 Both the rider and a cinched saddle must be on horse when crossing finish line, in order to qualify for placing.

GR9 No saddling on the finish line is allowed.

GR10 A video camera will be placed on the finish line, when available, to record teams crossing; line infractions and times from start to finish of a race. Competing captains can review the video one half hour after the judges' review/decision is made.

GR11 Contestants are expected to act accordingly and respectful at all times. Profanity in or around the rodeo arena will not be tolerated and will be subject to fines or suspension(s).

GR12 Contestants must wear western style long sleeved shirts, western hats, and western boots when competing or representing the CWHRA in the arena or behind the chutes.

GR13 All rules are subject to the Board of Directors discretion.

A. Animal Health & Wellness

A1 Absolutely no biting of horse's ears, punching or kicking the animal.

A2 No choking, half hitches, or trip ropes are allowed.

A3 The shank rope must be on the same side of the horse's head as the contestants when the chute gate is opened. No willful busting is allowed

A4 If a horse has a visible injury in the chute the chute boss must be notified immediately.

A5 If a horse is visibly injured during a performance, the team must abandon the race effort and seek assistance from the chute boss and stock contractor.

A6 Rodeo arenas must have all gates and panels clearly marked with banners and/or flags so that the horses do not attempt to run through the fence. The Stock Contractor is responsible for ensuring that the arena will be suitable for his stock.

A7 All spurs are to be free rolling. Bull spurs or locking rowels are not permitted in the arena.

B. Equipment

B1. Halters must be leather or of a nylon fabric without a chain attached, tacks inserted, wire, or any other pressure devices added.

B1a. Handles on halters are permitted as long as they do not pose any injury to horses.

B2. Shank ropes shall be of a cotton construction, with a minimum of 1/2" diameter and shall not exceed 16' in length from the attaching ring of the halter to the end of the rope.

B3. Saddles will be in good condition and must contain front swells and a cantle. There must be a protective material between the saddle and the horse so as not to injure the horse (sheepskin, foam, etc.)

B4. A quick-cinch is acceptable if it is attached to a proper belly cinch and is not harmful to the horse.

B5. CWHRA directors can at any time ask teams to have their equipment inspected and equipment in violation of above rules will be disallowed.

C. Membership

C1. Any person, who is under the age of 18 years old, is required to have a release signed by their parents or legal guardian before a membership will be granted by the CWHRA.

C2. Membership dues are as follows for the membership classes:

C2a) Competing member: $200, includes voting privileges and one (1) companion card,

C2b) Rookie competing member: $100, includes voting privileges and one (1) companion card,

C2c) Associate membership: $50, without voting privileges, or

C2d) Weekend competing permit: $50, valid for one weekend or rodeo and without voting privileges

C3. A Rookie competing member is a competing individual who has not previously competed in five CWHRA sanctioned events. They will remain a rookie until they have competed in a total of five CWHRA sanctioned events.

C4. A Rookie teams consists of three (3) contestants on a team who are rookie competing members.

C5. An Annual General Meeting will be held at the CWHRA National Finals each year.

D. CWHRA Sanctioning Rules

D1 All CWHRA rules must be adhered to at all CWHRA sanctioned events.

D2 A rodeo must be sanctioned and posted on the CWHRA website www.wildhorseracing.ca at least thirty (30) days prior to the rodeo, or if time restraints do not permit enough notification time, all team Captains must be notified via telephone a member of the Board of Directors.

D3 A minimum of three (3) CWHRA teams must be entered in order for a Wild Horse Race to be counted towards the standings.

D4 The CWHRA will administer entries, entry fees, and payouts with administration fees deducted accordingly.

D5 CWHRA sanctioned wild horse races must have a chute draw.

D6 Draw will be made by chute numbers placed into a hat and drawn from the hat.

D7 All races must be started with one (1) horn or whistle.

D8 Finish line will be a barrel placed directly across the arena from the centre of the chutes. It will be positioned 20' or 7 paces from the fence.

D9 The time allowed for the horse race is 2 minutes from the starting horn. After 2 minutes a horn will sound to signal the end of the race.

E. Entries

E1 Entries will be accepted on the posted entry date between 8:00 am – 8:00 pm Mountain Standard Time. The entry number is provided on the CWHRA website. Call backs are directed to the Regional Representative and draws will be posted on the website 2 days after entry date.

E2 Any team member may call in entries; however, the team captain must confirm on call back.

E3 Any three members can compete for a team but they are not permitted to enter 2 rodeos simultaneously, under the same team name.

E4 A local team may enter a CWHRA sanctioned event if they are not members. Monies earned will not count towards the CWHRA standings.

E5 When cross-entering CWHRA Sanctioned Rodeo's, teams must clarify any Cross entry and enter under a different name. The team's cross-entry will be held until entry closing and if required, the cross-entries will then be drawn randomly from a hat by a minimum of two (2) CWHRA Directors until all of the chutes are full.

E6 The entry fee is $100 per team unless otherwise posted on the CWHRA website at least 30 days in advance of the rodeo.

E5a. An administration fee of 10% will be taken out of all added and entry fee monies. The remaining 90% is considered the total prize money.

E5b. An administration fee of $100 will be charged on all NSF cheques

E7. In the event additional teams are required to fill the chutes, team captains will be contacted by the Regional Representatives in the order of current year's standings until chutes are filled.

E8. If there are more entries than chutes available:

E8a. If a second performance is an option, the Wild Horse Race will be timed over the two performances. The top four times will be paid 40%, 30%, 20%, and 10% of the total prize money.

E8b. If a second go round is not an option, the number of chutes will dictate the amount of teams accepted. Priority will be given firstly by entry order and secondly by standings.

F. Payouts

F1 Any rodeo held without Finals will pay out top four (4) teams overall by placing, if every team competes in each performance of the rodeo, or by combined times if teams compete in split performances. The payouts are as follows: 1st place-40% of total prize money, 2nd place-30% of total prize money, 3rd place-20% of total prize money, 4th place-10% of total prize money.

F2 Any rodeo holding a final round to determine the champion, will take a predetermined number of teams to the final round by points, followed by times in previous go-rounds. The total prize money will be combined and paid out as follows: 1st place-40% of total prize money, 2nd place-30% of total prize money, 3rd place-20% of total prize money, 4th place-10% of total prize money.

F3 CWHRA rodeos of more than two days or head can pay day-money for points. If the Board determines that a rodeo will be paid out as day-money, it will be posted at least one month in advance of the rodeo on the CWHRA website.

F4 If no teams place during the entire rodeo, no money will be paid out. Entry fees will be retained by the CWHRA for administration. Added money will be retained and put towards the added money payout at the finals.

F5 If less than 4 teams place in a rodeo, the money for the unqualified placing(s) will be split evenly between the qualified placings as ground money. Ground money does not count towards standings.

G. Standings and Points

G1. All money earned at a CWHRA sanctioned rodeo, with the exception of ground money, will be counted towards the CWHRA standings.

G2. Qualifying points will start to count from the date that a membership is purchased.

G3. The CWHRA regular season ends on the entry day of the Finals. The following will determine which teams are invited to attend the Finals:

G3a . Standings at the end of the regular season will determine the top teams who are eligible for the finals,

G3b A team must compete at a minimum of five (5) rodeos (not including the finals) in order to qualify for the CWHRA finals, and

G3c The number of teams competing in the finals will depend on the venue.

G4. All teams qualifying for the finals will start at 0 points. The team with the most aggregate points over the course of the Finals will determine the CWHRA Finals Champion.

G5. In the event of a tie after the final performance, the teams that are tied will compete against each other on another horse to determine the Finals Champion.

G6. In the event that time or a lack of stock will not allow a ride off, the champion will be determined by the placing during the event (i.e.: number of 1st's, and then 2nds, and then 3rds and and 4th's). In the event of a further tie, the times will be added from the number of runs that were taken and the team with the fastest total time will be declared as the champion.

G7. Monies won at 'invitation only' rodeos or special events shall not count towards season standings.

H. Awards and Eligibility

H1. A Team and/or Individual must compete in a minimum of five (5) rodeos to qualify for a Year End Award. The CWHRA will present the following awards at the Annual General Meeting each year:

H1a. CWHRA Season Champions: Three (3) Championship Awards will be presented to the CWHRA Year End Season Leaders at the end of the current season. The champions are based on total monies earned.

H1b. Finals Champions (team): Three (3) Awards will be awarded to the Champions of the CWHRA Finals rodeo.

H1c. Rookie Team of the Year: Three (3) Awards will be awarded to the rookie team who is leading the other rookie teams in the standings at the end of the current season.

H1d. Rookie of the Year: One (1) Award will be awarded to the highest earning rookie based on current year end standings.

H2. A Rookie member's winnings from any CWHRA approved rodeo with paid members will count towards rookie standings.

I. Turnouts, Releases and Substitutions:

I1 Turn out fines will be issued to a team turning out of an event. The team must pay $100 plus the turned-out entry fee prior to entering another CWHRA rodeo.

J. Grievances, Appeals and Blacklist:

J1 Members will submit $50.00 with each grievance filed. If the grievance brought forward results in disciplinary action, the $50.00 will be refunded to the member filing the grievance.

J2 In the event of an alleged infraction, a director will notify the Board and the discretion of the Board will decide appropriate action established within the current rulebook.

J3 The accused member will be notified of the infraction and recommended sanction by way of telephone call followed by a letter.

J4 The member will then have seven (7) days to appeal the charge. A written letter must be sent to the CWHRA office stating defense. The board will review the appeal and notify the member of the results of the review.

J5 After 3 disciplinary actions against a member the involved member will lose his membership for the remainder of the season. If the member is a team captain, his team may register under another name and carry their points over to their new team.

J6 A member filing a grievance will notify the CWHRA in writing no later than seven (7) days after the event leading up to the grievance. The letter should contain any information pertinent to their case.

J7 Once a member is notified of a fine owing, the member has 30 days to pay their fines before they are listed on the CWHRA Blacklist. For each week the fine remains outstanding, the member will be ineligible to enter or compete in any CWHRA events for the amount of weeks equal to the period the fine remains outstanding. If a fine reaches 90 days past due, the member will forfeit their privilege to compete in that year's season.

J8 The CWHRA Board of Directors has the discretionary right to refuse the privilege of a CWHRA membership to any person or persons, who they feel may harm the integrity of the Canadian Wild Horse Race Association.

K. Release Clause

K1 No rodeo committee, director, representative, or sanctioning organization can be held responsible for injuries or loss sustained by a contestant, livestock or property of either representing or competing in any manner in a wild horse race. Each contestant is free to make a choice governing their safety and understands this clause. The contestant releases all entities mentioned above by any entry into a wild horse race.

L. Logo and Copyright

L1 All rights are reserved, for both the logo and the name, Canadian Wild Horse Race Association. The Board of Directors must approve any use of the CWHRA title and/or logo, for any and all uses, whether it is for personal use or financial gain. Any member using the name or logo without permission may be subject to a fine and/or legal action. Any non-member using the name or logo of the CWHRA without permission may be subject to legal action. Only the Board of Directors has the legal use of the name and logo, and the majority of the Board must approve that use.

M. Board of Directors

M1 CWHRA Directors will coordinate with rodeo committees and assist with entries. Duties will also include providing local media with information on events, as well as monitoring the conduct of wild horse race contestants. A CWHRA Director will investigate any complaint involving a CWHRA member. If it is found that an infraction has occurred, the rules regarding discipline and fines will be followed.

M2 The Board of Directors meetings will occur on a monthly basis. If a Director is unable to attend, he/she will contact another Director, and have them address any pressing issues on his/her behalf.

M3 The President is a two (2) year term and shall act as the chairperson at all meetings of the CWHRA, including the meetings of the Board of Directors.

M3a In the event of a misunderstanding among the directors, the President shall serve as the mediator, compiling the facts in regards to the dispute. The President upon careful consideration will recommend a solution.

M4 The President will be the spokesperson for the CWHRA. Any inquiries from rodeo associations, committees or press should be directed to the spokesperson.

M5 The Vice-President is a two (2) year term and shall act on behalf of the President in the event that the President is unable to attend a meeting or function. In the event that the president is unable to fulfill his/her duties, the Vice President will take over the duties of the President, until the following annual election.

M6 The Secretary / Treasurer is a two (2) year term and shall record accurate minutes of each meeting, administer all clerical duties regarding the CWHRA.

M7 The Secretary / Treasurer duties will also include all financial responsibilities of the CWHRA including keeping updated financial reports, bank statements, year-end bookkeeping, deposits, entries, payouts, and membership.

M8 Regional Representatives have a two (2) year term and are whom regional members direct questions and concerns to. They are responsible for keeping members in their region fully informed. Their responsibilities also include promoting the CWHRA in their region by assisting with sponsorship, rodeos, mentoring new members, conducting chute draws, and collecting entries.

M9 The Board of Directors consists of the following positions, having voting privileges unless otherwise noted:

- President,
- Vice President,
- Secretary / Treasurer,
- Statistical Director,
- Northern Alberta Regional Representative,
- Southern Alberta Regional Representative
- Saskatchewan Regional Representative, and
- British Columbia Regional Representative.

M10 The 2019 CWHRA Board of Directors are:

- President - Mark Trabysh
- Vice President - Jason Loken
- Secretary / Treasurer - Rebecca Henderson
- Statistical Director - Lee-ann Puhallo
- Northern Alberta Regional Representative - Riley Carey
- Southern Alberta Regional Representative - Tim Munro
- Saskatchewan Regional Representative - Cody Loken
- British Columbia Regional Representative - Alan Puhallo